

KY HOME PERFORMANCE

Program Sponsor

Kentucky Housing Corporation with support from Kentucky Dept. for Energy Development & Independence

Provide statewide marketing, incentives, financing, quality assurance,

Test-in

Certified-home auditor

- performs comprehensive energy audit:
- Educates homeowner on process, building functions, and incentives
- Conducts blower door test and home diagnostics
- Provides baseline condition of home, along with estimates of project costs and energy and utility savings
- Helps homeowner identify funding and contractors
- May be independent or work for utility

Improvements

Installer

- performs energy efficiency home improvements:
- Contracts with homeowner to do work suggested in initial energy audit
- May work for same firm as auditor

Test-out/QA

Third-party quality assurance provider

- performs comprehensive energy audit:
- Conducts blower door test and home diagnostics
- Verifies correct installation of measures
- Provides test-out results of home improvements to homeowner and program sponsor
- Provides homeowner estimates on energy and utility savings
- Completes quality assurance on each job

Utility Service Providers

Provide marketing, homeowner incentives, and may provide audits within their service area

